

OPEN YOUR HEART

(Nick Prater)

The musical score consists of three systems of four staves each, written in common time with a key signature of two sharps. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The first system contains the first four lines of the chorus: "O- pen your heart and let the ri- ver of love flow through". The second system continues with the next four lines: "O- pen your heart and let the ri- ver of love flow through". The third system concludes the chorus with the final four lines: "O- pen your heart and let the ri- ver of love flow through". The lyrics are repeated in each system.
